

CURRENT HISTORICAL RESEARCH

Contributed by Lachlan
Sunday, 22 July 2007

There is a growing movement to document local Chinese history. Here are two recent papers:

UNSMELTERED GOLD, UNCUT JADE.: SOURCES AND RESOURCES FOR THE STUDY OF HISTORY OF CHINESE NEW ZEALANDERS

Victoria University of Wellington Stout Research Centre Seminars
Chinese New Zealand March-June 2003
Nigel Murphy & Lynette Shum

REMEMBERING HAINING STREET: With both eyes open

Lynette Shum - 2003 In addition work is being done by:
Allen and Kitty Chang - recording mainly family histories
Wong Liu Shueng and others- organising a Chinese Oral History Association in Auckland and Wellington
Henry Chan - researching the history of Tung Jung people in New Zealand and Australia
Watch this space.